

ARTICLE 1 SAMPLE ARTICLE 1

1.1 Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor.

ARTICLE 2 SAMPLE ARTICLE 2

2.1 Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor.

ARTICLE 3 SAMPLE ARTICLE 3

3.1 Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor.

ARTICLE 4 SAMPLE ARTICLE 4

4.1 Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor. Whenever possible, an employee must contact the District Office as soon as the need to be absent is known, but in no event less than one hour prior to the start of the workday to permit the District to secure a substitute. Employees are obligated to immediately report any condition or practice with which they feel unsafe to their immediate supervisor.

